Japanese Students Tour N. America On $2.50 per Day

VANCOUVER.—Koichi Sugawa is an agricultural student by calling but a mathematical whiz by necessity.

At 19 he is the youngest of six Japanese university students on a three-month tour of national parks in the United States and Canada—and he's the most important.

For Koichi holds the strings of a not too bulging purse.

$1.00 FOR SIX

When the six arrived in Vancouver early this week there was less than $1,000 in the purse and they all have to exist on that for the next two months. That works out at about $2.50 per man per day.

Koichi has already proved his worth as a skilful penny-pincher. Total expenditure for the group since it landed in Los Angeles, 24 days ago, has been only $148.

The students have managed this by sticking closely to the job at hand. Not for them the hamburger and drive-in movie routine so dear to the hearts of local students.

COMPARE RESORTS

They are comparing tourist resorts in North America with those of their own country with respect to location, administration and operations in general.

When they get back to Japan in October they will report their findings to the Academic Tourist Club of Hokkaido University in northern Japan which sponsored their trip. The six are all agricultural and forestry students at the university.

Now they are headed for Banff National Park.

Professor Studies Metro System in Winnipeg, Toronto

WINNIPEG. — Japan's Prof. Yasujiro Daido sat behind piles of scrap books covering the birth and development of metro government in Winnipeg.

Prof. Daido came to Winnipeg recently from Toronto to study the metro system, make notes and gather material for presentation in Japan late this year or early next spring.

He stayed in Toronto a week to study the functioning of a metro government that has been in operation for almost 10 years.

He said he was impressed with metro in Winnipeg because it has advanced almost as far as Toronto in a much shorter space of time.

Not appreciated

But there is room for improvement, he said.

"I think it necessary for metro and municipalities to compromise more in Winnipeg," he said. "There should be more intimate relations between the central core and surrounding municipalities.

"Municipalities don't appreciate metro as much in Winnipeg as they do in Toronto."

Toronto's metro government is "more realistic" but, in theory, Winnipeg's is "good."

Prof. Daido described metro in Toronto as being built "bottom-up" whereas Winnipeg's is "top-down." By this he means the municipalities in Toronto wanted metro before it was imposed on them. In Winnipeg, the picture is reversed.

Getting away from the business of his trip, Prof. Daido spoke candidly of Winnipeg, its good and bad points.

"My impression is that this city is very calm and very beautiful compared with New York and London. The people are kind and warm-hearted."

On Winnipeg's debit side, Prof. Daido was not highly impressed with the glitter of Portage Ave. at night.

Likes beauty

"Your neon lights are too strong," he said. "You should have soft colors like they have in Rome and Paris. Beauty in a city is important."

The findings of the professor's two-week research in Toronto and Winnipeg will be used to develop a "new" metro system uniting two Japanese cities, Osaka and Kobe.

The combined population of these cities, along with numerous towns and villages that will come under the sway of Metro, will be 8,000,000. And there is more than a staggering population figure to cope with.

Osaka is located in the Japanese prefecture of the same name. Kobe is in the prefecture of Hyogo. Prefectures are on a par with provinces in Canada.

It would be like developing a metro government to look after the operations of Ottawa and Hull.

Prof. Daido's task is to come up with a method for finding a common ground so both prefectures can work toward a metro government combining the cities of Osaka and Kobe.

He frequently referred to the word "compromise" as a key factor in forming a successful metro government.

Japan Must Slow Down Rapid Economic Growth

VANCOUVER.—A Japanese-Canadian banker says Japan's fantastic development in the last few years has been so rapid that the country must temporarily slow down.

George J. Korenaga, Vancouver-born Far East representative of the Bank of Nova Scotia who works at Tokyo, said in an interview here that Japan has had to put the brakes on imports and economic growth generally, and is attempting to build up its foreign exchange reserves—a move that affects Canada, which ships raw materials to Japan.

Mr. Korenaga said Japan's gross national product had been expected to increase at a rate of six or seven per cent annually, but actually the rate had been between 15 and 16 per cent.

Prosperous times brought a greater increase in imports than in exports, with a consequent squeeze on Japan's foreign exchange reserves. As one of the results, Japan was reducing imports and using stock-piled raw materials.

Last year, he said, Japan imported $266,000,000 worth of products from Canada, but exported only $177,000,000 worth to this country. Japan would like to see Canada ease the imbalance of trade by taking capital goods, such as equipment.

Japan also is moving towards greater liberalization of trade, said Mr. Korenaga. He estimated Japan would be 95 per cent free from controls on trade by the end of the year.

Canadian Nisei Wants To Be A Gunsmith

DENVER, Colo.—A Canadian Nisei from Midway, British Columbia, is in town, wanting to become a professional gunsmith.

The Nisei, Nobi Uno, is attending classes in this art at Colorado School of Trade in Lakewood. Upon completing his course in 18 months, the Canadian expects to return home, where he hopes to open a gunsmith shop. In the meantime, to help defray expenses, he is repairing and cleaning guns at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Akira Nakamura, where he is residing.

FOUR SHIPS

MAIL TO JAPAN.—Four ships will soon be leaving for Japan. They are: from San Francisco on Aug 29—President Hoover; from Vancouver on Sept. 1—Zamboanga; from Vancouver on Sept. 4—Kamoharu Maru; from Vancouver on Sept. 7—Japan Mail.

Japan To Assist Foreign Nations

TOKYO.—The Japanese government has embarked on a program for the establishment of technical training centres as part of its efforts to help some of the world's under-developed nations.

Three such centres are already in operation, in Thailand, Pakistan and Ceylon. At the one in Pakistan, rice crops on one experimental field have already been trebled in yield.

The establishment of seven more centres has been agreed upon and primarily negotiations are under way with Ghana for a technical training centre in that African nation.

All the centres are designed to train technicians on the spot and to supplement plans to send out Japanese experts and receive overseas trainees in Japan.

Japan provides machines, equipment, and technicians, while the governments concerned provide land, buildings, office clerks, and administration expenses.

Moritsugu Wants To "Go Japanese"

By KENT NIXON

TOKYO.—Frank Moritsugu is Western from his thinking to his toes which are not accustomed to Japanese slippers but for three weeks the Canadian Nisei wants to "go Japanese."

Moritsugu, a dynamic 39-year-old news media veteran, is here on assignment for McLean's, Canada's leading national magazine. This is his first trip to Japan.

Asked to pinpoint what he hopes to find, the contributing editor admitted that his coming here serves a dual function.

"Naturally because of my background I have always wanted to come to Japan but in addition to gathering material I am like any other Westerner. I want to know why the country has rebounded so tremendously since the war."

He thinks he has a clue.

"I've already visited several industries and talked at length with executives. I find that in business here much of the language includes English—a third of our conversation was. The Japanese language is very imprecise. But in English you can be more exact—say what you want."

Moritsugu quickly ... the conversational ability. "I don't say my Japanese is perfect, but I haven't had any difficulty, although I do like to watch television to practice."

Born in Port Alice, B.C., he now resides with his wife—of French-Canadian stock — and their three children in Toronto. Moritsugu's parents both came from Yonago in Tottori-ken. They have lived in Canada for 40 years.

What sort of emotional tugs has he experienced since arriving here?

"Hardly any at all. Like every other Westerner I'm wondering about the exotic Japan. I've been told that if I want to find it I should get out of Tokyo. But what about the new Japan, the Japan everyone in the West wants to know about? I believe I'll find much of it here in Tokyo."

Despite several jaunts planned for other cities where he may have a chance to sample Japan at its most exotic, he further relishes the idea of taking Japan's pulse in Tokyo. "I also enjoy big cities."

Drawing on his knowledge of Japanese history, he ... the ... at the Westernization of other countries' ideas in addition to the advanceing of their own."

Moritsugu, who was formerly managing editor of Canadian Home's Magazine and has been prominent on Canadian TV, has also written for several American magazines. He covered the Third World Judo Championships in Paris for Sports Illustrated last year.

A second degree black belt holder, he is an instructor at the Toronto Kodokan Judo Institute. "I guess my interest in judo is the only real tie I have with the country of my parents."

Sent here by McLean's because of the possible advantage he might enjoy owing to his background Moritsugu hopes to be able to bridge the gap he felt he couldn't while serving as an interpreter of captured Japanese for the Canadian Army in India during the war.

Remembering that he had no common ground then on which to base any attempts at conversation, he said, "Except for my interpreting there were vast areas separating us. I couldn't even make the right noises."

Japanese Invest In Madagascar Croc Farm

OTTAWA. — Enterpreneurs from Japan are investing some $50,000 in what must surely be one of the world's most improbable undertaking: a crocodile farm in Madagascar, reports the Japanese Embassy in Ottawa.

The farm, which will be jointly owned and operated by a Japanese business firm and the government of Madagascar, will raise about 5,000 crocodiles a year. Five large fishing boats are to be built and 25 Madagascar fishermen will be engaged in capturing the animals.

Main product of the farm will be crocodile skins, which are about twice the size of alligator ...

Vagaries

By LARRY TAJIRI

There was some concern expresed at the National JACL convention in Seattle, according to reports, over the current motion picture release "Merrill's Marauders." In the past JACL concern has been pinpointed against Hollywood films which have purveyed lies, distortions and misleading information about persons of Japanese ancestry in the United States. In the case of "Merrill's Marauders," however, the concern arose from an omission.

In World War II Gen. Frank Merrill's volunteers infiltrated 500 miles behind the Japanese lines in Burma and their operations proved invaluable to the Allies in frustrating any attempt by the enemy to consolidate their military position. Among Merrill's volunteers were a number of Japanese Americans, Henry Gosho and Kenny Yasui to name two, who contributed greatly to the operation and later were suitable docorated. At the time, of course, the Nisei GIs, intelligence experts from the language school at Fort Snelling, worked in complete anonymity.

In the film "Merrill's Marauders," released by Warner Bros., there are no Nisei GIs in the unit and the combat intelligence activity is entrusted to Filipino volunteers. This is the point which aroused considerbla discussion at the JACL convention in Seattle, particularly among those delegates who are veterans of military inteligence service in the Pacific.

Because of the hush-hush nature of their services in the war against Japan, the wartime contributions of some 6,000 Japanese Americans in military intelligence have not received the widespread publicity accorded Nisei GI activity in other areas. Officials at the Military Intelligence Service language school at Fort Snelling were adamant during most of the Pacific war against any mention of the use of Japanese American intelligence specialists by U.S. forces. This attitude undoubtedly derived from normal intelligence service procedure, but it must have been no secret to the Japanese enemy that thre were Nisei GIs in the Pacific.

News stories which were published in the Pacific Citizen, for example, about Nisei in military intelligence outside the MIS apparatus. Most of the stories were those filed from the field by newspaper correspondents.

The absence of Nisei GIs in "Merrill's Marauders" can be explained easily. When the Hollywood producers of the picture set out to make the film, a jungle setting was needed. The Philippines, which has been attempting to attract Hollywood filmmakers, offered concessions to movie producers and the islands also contained areas which approximated the Burmese jungle.

The concession that the Hollywood people has to make was to include a Filipino hero in the picture. Although there may not have been any Filipinos in Merrill's Marauders, the instances of individual heroism among Filipino scouts with U.S. forces in the battle for the Philippines is well known. The producer on "Merrill's Marauders" took dramatic license in order to film the picture in the Philippines.

Samuel Fuller, who wrote the screen play for "Merrill's Marauders" in Hollywood producer-director-writer who probably has more detailed knowledge of the wartime contributions of the Nisei than any other filmmaker.

If Fuller left the Nisei out of his script for "Merrill's Marauders," it is also a fact that he was one of the first in Hollywood to write in a heroic Nisei figure into a movie about war.

Fuller wrote and directed "The Steel Helmet," first film drama about the Korean war, produced in 1952, "The Steel Helmet" included a grizzled combat veteran named Sergeant Tanaka, played by Richard Loo, who is a veteran of the 442nd Combat Team. Tanaka captures a Chinese Communist who taunts him about the mistreatment of Japanese Americans during World War II and specifically mentions the mass evacuation. Tanaka explains to the Chinese prisoner of his belief in democratic justice and why he has fought not alone in Europe but is fighting again in Korea.

Tanaka was a character conceived by Fuller and was put into the story of "The Steel Helmet" to make a dramatic point.

Fuller also has a number of scripts for a proposed TV series about a Nisei veteran of the Pacific war who teams with a non-Oriental buddy to set up a private investigative service in Hollywood. The romantic angle of the series was to be provided by the Japanese war bride of the non-Oriental.

Fuller wanted to use James Shigeta as the Nisei veteran and Nobu McCarthy as the war bride but this TV project has remained dormant for lack on a commercial sponsor.

It was Fuller, however, who gave Shigeta his first Hollywood starring role in "The Crimson Kimono" in which the hero was a Nisei detective involved in a murder case in Los Angeles' Little Tokyo.

Fuller was out to destroy the stereotyped Hollywood ending in which the Kipling cliche of "east is east, etc." has prevailed. In "The Crimson Kimono" Shigeta wins the girl, played by Victoria Shaw, in a triangular romantic situation in which his rival was Glenn Corbett.

In the case of "Merrill's Marauders" the point is not that the film's makers were unknowing regarding the role of Nisei GIs with Frank Merrill's celebrated unit. Because the film was to be filmed in the Philippines they bowed to expediency.

寫本妻

たしかに――。

雪は、この四年間にすっかり、浪人者の妻たる生活力を身につけてしまったようであった。

「金をためてどうするのだ？」

と、長門がききかえすと雪は、ちよっと顔をあからめてから、

「子供が生れました時のことも考えまして――」

「生れたら、成年までは、おれが責任を持つ。飢えさせはせん」

「それは、わかって居りますけれど……万一の場合を予想いたしますと、やはりすこしでもたくわえがないと心細うございます」

後見の井伊家から、一文も貰う氣持をもたないけなげさが、長門の心にしみた。自分の身分を、梅津長門の妻としてのみ考えているのであった。

「おれは、そなたよりは長生きをするつもりだ」

長門が笑うと、雪は、眞剣な面持で、

がいたなら――」

「それみろ。そなたは、おれより長生きする予感をもって居るぞ。けしからんやつだ」

「いいえ、いいえ、そうではございませぬが……でもお金だけは、ためておきませぬと――」

「よし、わかった。せいぜい、たくわえてくれ。おれは、氣まぐれだから、いつこんな商賣がいやになってなまけてしまうかわからんからな」

「おいやになりましたら、お止しになっても結構でございます。わたくしほかの作者の寫本をしても、當分は、あなたをやしなってさしあげられます」

「いやに自信があるな」

雪は、につこりしてみせた。

「さては、もう、かなり、へそくりをつくったのだろう？」

雪は、笑って、こたえなかった。以上は、つい數日前に、夕食後にとりかわした會話であった。

夜の決意

「おかえりなさいませ」

長門が、萱門(かやもん)をくぐった時は、雪は、寫本にひとくぎりをつけて、庭の落葉を掃いているところであった。

「今日は、大漁でございますか？」

「いや、しけだ」

「あら、一尾も――」

「おひるすぎに、住吉屋が参りまして、このつぎの本をお考え頂きたい、と申して居りました」

しかし、雪にむかって、小俣堂十郎を敵にまわす大仕事を告げる氣は、毛頭なかった。

「しばらく、この仕事は中止する。おれの筆名で、貞賓に書いてもらおう」

「はい」

長門は、ゆっくりとお茶をのむ間に、雪に不審を起させないための、明日からの自分の行動についてのウソを考えた。

△カナダ・エスニック・プレス連盟が作成した『カナダの外国語新聞に關する事實錄』という小冊子が今春各メンバー紙にそれぞれ配布された。本紙もこの連盟の會員で、案畑子は理事の一人として末席をけがしている。

△この小冊子によると會員紙は五十五で、全カナダの外国語新聞數の約三分の一に當っている。一九〇五年にわずか四つの外国語で發行された新聞は十八紙であったのが、一九三九年に一躍五十一紙となり、現在では二十七ヵ國語の新聞が百七十六も出ているという發展ぶりである。

△もちろん日刊あり、週刊月刊などまちまちだし、共産系新聞も少し交っている。いちばん多く外国語新聞を出している都會はトロントで七十九紙、次がウイニペッグで三十紙、モントリオールは二十一紙、晩市は十紙となっている。

現代日本に對する發言

石川　清

（五）

朝鮮戦争が、いかに大戦争であったかはその死傷者の数をみると判然としてくる。

死　者　四五一、七二七

負傷者　五四三、一四九

行方不明、捕虜　四七二、一一一

この戦死負傷者の多数は南鮮兵であるが、これを米軍のみにしぼってみると、

戦死者　三三、六二九

この数は戦場で死んだものである。負傷後病院で死んだ者が二〇、六一七名で死者の総数は五三、二四六名となるのである。

負傷者　一〇三、二八四

□『たばこ』。漢字では煙草と書きます。食後の一服、一仕事終わったあとの一服、こうしたたばこの味はまた格別です。

□たばこは一四九二年にコロンブスがアメリカを発見したときに、土産に『けむりを出す葉』としてヨーロッパに持ち帰ったもので、これがのちに全世界に廣まったものです。

□たばこを吸いはじめたのは、アメリカ・インディアンで、宗教の儀式と結びついて生まれたものといわれ、すでに紀元前三千年ころから行なわれていたということです。

□コロンブスは、アンチル諸島のキューバで、インディアンたちが、Y型になった中空の木片の管を両方の鼻孔に挿入し、管そのものは、火をつけた草のなかに挿入して『けむり』を吸ったり吐いたりして気持よさそうに長々と寝そべっている奇妙な姿を発見しました。

□實際にはY型になったパイプの名前だったのですが、これがたばこの語源になったものだといわれています。

□日本へは南蛮船によって傳えられたものですが、その渡来は天文十二年（一五四三年）とする説、慶長十年（一六〇五年）とする説の二説があります。

□ともあれ、たばこは現代人の生活に欠かせない嗜好（しこう）品となっています

△カウエット氏はヒトラーについては「彼はドイツ國民を貧困から立ちあがらせ社會的改革をもたらしたことは尊敬に値するが、それを達成するのに戰爭の途をとったのは誤りであった」と説明した。と同誌記事は報じている。

太平洋をヨットで單身で横斷した堀江謙一氏(堀井と報じたのは誤り)はその航海手記中の一部に次のように書いている。

△小説も推理もの冒險ものを五、六冊持ちこんだが全部は讀めなかった。水びたしになったのも何冊かあった。海が荒れると艇内に海水が流れこみ、バケツでくみ出すのに隨分エネルギーを費やした。しかし何といっても一番氣になったのは船底の狀態で、貝や海草が喰ってくるので始終掃除した。

△ト市共進會の六日間の入場者數は昨年より十万人も多いので、會期中の目標三百万人の實現するかも知れない。

Sport Scene

with Rick Matsumoto

TORONTO.—The annual Labour Day Week-end Softball Tournament—the biggest sports spectacle on the Toronto Japanese Canadian calendar—is just one week away and bearing down quickly upon us.

This year's tournament marks the 12th Anniversary of this annual event which began under the sponsorship of The New Canadian back in 1950 with a two-day, two-game tournament between Toronto All-stars and the visiting New York YBA. Incidentally, Toronto took both games of that initial tournament by scores of 7-3 and 14-8.

Another big feature of that first-ever tournament was that close to 1,800 fans attended the two games. The following year, when New York took the championship an estimated 1,200 fans sat in on the final game between the American visitors and Montreal.

In thel last few years, though the tournament has grown from two to six and even seven teams, attendance has fallen off to less than half.

What's wrong? This is your tournament get out and welcome our visitors and cheer for your favourite team.

Following that initial tournament a dozen years back, the sponsorship of the tournament was taken over by the Toronto JCCA, who will again host this year's contests.

The American entry—or rather entries—will be represented by three teams from Chicago. The Windy City will invade Fairbanks Memorial Park with La Salle Photo, Bruins I and Bruins II. Toronto will be represented by Bestway Cleaners and Japan Camera Centre, with Hamilton and defending champion Chatham make up the seven-team tournament.

The tournament will get underway at 9:00 a.m. sharp, on Saturday, Sept. 1st with Chicago Bruins I taking on Bestway Cleaners. Game two which will get underway at 10:45 will pit Chicago Bruins II against Japan Camera Centre; with the third game between Hamilton and Chicago's La Salle Photo commencing at 12:30. Chatham, who as defending champs get a by into the second round of activities, will take on the winner of the opening game in contest number four which starts at 2:15. Games 5 and 6 will commence at 4:00 and 5:45 to close out the first round of games.

The finals will take place on Sunday, Sept. 2 with the consolation finals getting underway at 1:15 p.m. At 3:00 p.m. the final game of the tournament will commence to determine this year's winner of the TJCCA Challenge Trophy.

As part of the week-end festivities, a gala dance will again be held on Saturday night at the YMHA Auditorium from 8:30 p.m. to midnight. Price of admission will be $1.25 per person.

Following a banquet on Sunday evening to honour the teams, a player's social will be held at the International Institute with presentation of trophies to the winning teams and the all-star players to be made during the intermission.

Everyone is invited to attend both dances.

Nishimura Completes Second Leg of Grand Slam Hopes

TORONTO.—Slamming Stan Nishimura gained the second leg of his attempt to equal Tom Iwasaki,s record of the grand slam in tennis, by outrunning Ed Tsujimoto in the Earlscourt draw single's final 6-3, 6-2. Stan defeated hard hitting Arne Mortensen 6-4, 6-4 in the semis, while Ed was at his best in disposing of Toru Idenouye in his semi-final round. As for the ladies, Chic Yanagizawa also won her second single's title by overcoming June Nobuoka's strong bid for the draw single's championship in a gruelling three setter.

In the consolations, Agnes Shimono also won her second title by defeating Dorrit Garcia 6-3, 6-1, and the men's final is between Yo Mori and Grant Faraday, which will be played on Saturday morning. Amy Nagata did quite well in winning two games off Agnes in the semis, and Joan Wilson also battled hard, but Dorrit was too experienced for freshman Joan to cope with, but she went down with flying colors. Freshman Dave Stock was the surprise of the consolations when he upsetted novice champ Tak Tanaka 6-4 in the quarters and extended Yo to 7-5 in the semis.

Three Cleveland tennists drove out for the weekend and they were shown the town and the Ex. by three of our lovelies, Kay Takasaki, Hedy Sakai and Nana Ashikawa on Sat., and Stan and his young set did the honors on Sunday. As for our match with the Cleveland All Stars, they shellacked us by 80-44, but there were two upsets when the hitherto unbeaten champ Mitch Hashiguchi split with Stan 6-4, 1-6, and their second seed ladies Kimi Shiozawa, also unbeaten split with Ets Fujiwara 6-1, 4-6. Eva Hashiguchi, champ, and Shig Okada, second seed are still unbeaten, untied on their home grounds. Powerhouse Don Yokota won over their third seed Shig Furuki and Toru split with same, while Ruth Carrier also split with their third seed Mary Vadas for some of our hard won points.

Sunday, August 26, Earlscourt and vicinity invades Trinity courts for the invitational Open, so it's Stan and Chic against the field.

Nishimura, Errors Knock JCC Out of Play-offs

Nikko vs Yamada In Sudden Death Game

TORONTO. — Japan Camera Centre knocked themselves out of this year's play-off picture in the Toronto Nisei Sunday Baseball League as they committed three errors in the sixth inning to drop an 8-7 contest to pennant winning Main Auto Body in the the last game of the season held at Ted Reeve Park last Sunday.

The Camera shop were breezing along with a 7-2 lead until tragedy struck then. In the 5th inning, Starter Ray Iijima, who had held Main to just two runs, was struck by a line drive and forced to leave the game.

Main jumped on relief pitcher Bobby Nishikawa for two runs in the fifth and then added three more in the 6th on a home run by playing manager Johnny Nishimura to spell ends for Japan Camera. Three errors in that fatefull sixth also did little in contributing to the Lensmen's play-off hopes.

Nishimura was the big gun for the Automen as he picked up a single besides his game winning blow in three at bat. Garry Miike collected three singles in four trips to the plate, while Ron Shimoni had two safeties. Other Main hits went to Dick Tanaka, Mike Sakura and Sab Seki, each of whom stroked a single.

Nishikawa was the big batter for Japan Camera with two hits and he almost tied the game in the last inning but his attempt to score the tying run was thwarted at the plate by catcher Jeep Seki. Mel Tsuji, Fred Kotani, Mitch Nakamura and Jim Ebata added the other Japan Camera hits.

AROUND THE BASES: The sudden death semi-final game will take place tomorrow at Ted Reeve between second place Yamada Studio and third place Nikko Gardens. The winner of this one game series will meet Main Auto Body in the finals which are scheduled to got underway on September 9th. The finals will be a best two-of-three series.

Officials Seek Chopsticks For Japanese Boys In Little League Baseball World Series

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa.— Where do you find a lot of Japanese chopsticks in a hurry in the middle of Pennsylvania? In a Chinese restaurant, of course.

That was one problem solved as eight teams were poised for the opening Tuesday (Aug. 21) of the Little League Baseball World Series in the city where the whole thing started.

One of the eight clubs in the week-long tournament was the Kunitachi, Japan, team—the eatingest, smallest, and smilingest team ever to play here.

Four Foreign Entries

The Japanese lads—all are 11 and 12 years old by American reckoning, a year older by their own—came to Williamsport in gray summerweight kimonos, equipped with special food, including instant noodles—but not chopsticks.

League officials scurried around to fill the void, and found chopsticks in a local Chinese restaurant. The Japanese boys said they weren't the style they were used to, and many switched to knives and forks.

The Japanese are one of four foreign entries. The other three are from Stoney Creek, Ontario, Canada; Monterrey, Mexico; and Poitiers Post of Vienne, France.

American teams are from Kankakee, Ill. (North); Pitman, N.J. (East); Del Rio, Texas (South); and San Jose, Calif. (West).

The Japanese went into action Wednesday against Monterrey, after the San Jose team met the team from France, which is composed of sons of Americans working there.

None of the Japanese boys spoke any English, and few of them could fill out the uniforms furnished to them by LL officials. Three wear size 1½ shoes, and there just aren't any that small in stock.

A rush order had to be sent out for shoes and uniforms to be delivered — they hoped—before the first game.

Secret Weapons

The Japanese boys average 4ft 8½ in. in height, and a little over 76 pounds, which means they will be giving away something like eight inches, and 30 to 40 pounds per boy to the other clubs.

However, they have a couple of secret weapons. For one, it is reported that they bow to the umpires at all times, which could gain them some points.

For another, they have a pair of identical twins—both second basemen. The twins are Masuo and Yoshio Nakano.

John Gilbert, an American with the office of special investigations in Tokyo who is one of their managers, says one of the twins is a good hitter and the other is a good fielder.

He's not sure which is which.

Wilson Captures CNE Judo Tournament

By LIZ

TORONTO.—Tug Wilson, nidan, the mid-west (Sask. and Man.) black belt champion scored ippon with a well timed armlock in very short order over Don McClellan, nidan, one of Toronto's leading black belts at the Third Annual Canadian National Exhibition Judo Tournament held on August 18.

Wilson who had eliminated his opponents in very quick order was determined to do the same with his final opponent. Immediately, after the referee called hajime, Tug grasped Don and went into a armlock, but on his way up Tug secured another armlock that won him the grand championship.

Leo Bouchard, shodan, St. Catherines, Rick Richardson, nidan, Ottawa were toppled by Wilson's harai goshi along with Ben Kahn, nidan, Toronto with a hidari sasae-ashi.

Don defeated Richard Rothwell, shodan, Ottawa appearing in his first tournament since a leg injury over a year ago; Howard Wheatly, shodan, Toronto and Mamoru Moe Oye, nidan, Winnipeg.

Oye, the fast and smooth Nisei judoka from Winnipeg skipped through Jim Martin, nidan, Toronto; Doug Kinkly, shodan, Hamilton; Jim McFadden, shodan, Toronto with very little effort. In the semi-finals he met Don McClelland. Both men fought to the best of his ability for the full time along with two extensions with Oye knocking McClelland to the mat a few times with counters and McClelland upsetting Oye with ashi-waza.

In the match deciding third place, Richardson and Oye fought in the best round of the night. Both men equally as fast on the ground as well as standing scored a waza-ari each and then could not find suitable opening to present an attack that would upset either party to give one of them the much needed decision. After a few extensions, both contestants were very tired, but Richardson managed to chalk up enough points over Oye in the final extensions to win the decision and give him third spot in the black belt tournament.

Odds and ends of the Black Belt Tournament: Jim Warmbly, shodan, and Mr. Furukawa, sandan, travelled from Detroit to participate in this annual event. Bamblant and Bernadino arrived from Montreal . . . Perry Teale, nidan, President of the Nova Scotia Black Belt Association also fought for the first time in a C.N.E. Tournament.

Foreign Minister To Address UN Session

TOKYO. — Masayoshi Ohira, newly appointed Foreign Minister, will head a five-member Japanese delegation to the 17th United Nations Assembly which opens in New York on Sept. 18. Mr. Ohira will address the General Assembly around Sept. 20.

The foreign minister plans to institute a "two ambassador" system to head Japan's permanent U.N. delegation so as to strengthen Japan's position at the International body. In line with this plan Ohira will appoint Akira Matsui, ambassador to Sweden to replace Ambassador Masayoshi Kakitsubo as Japan's ranking ambassador.

Japan Firm Claims New Midget Transistor

TOKYO. — Japan Electronics Company claims it has a new midget transistor motor which has a life span of 10,000 hours or 10 times longer than a similar model. It is expected to be marketed by the firm this fall.

Japan Electronics also announced that this motor can automatically turn direct current into alternating current without using a rectifier. This motor is intended for radio-phonographs and car fans. Its small size—one inch in diameter and three-quarter inch in depth—will make possible further miniaturization of electric phonographs.
